

Dylan Hayman

(470) 255-4714 • dylhayman@gmail.com • Atlanta, GA

Efficient professional with proven skills in data analysis and teamwork, honed at Cherokee County Emergency Management Agency and KES Science and Technology. Excelled in complex problem-solving and research, contributing to critical storm damage surveys and air purifying unit production. Adept at mastering new challenges and fostering collaborative relationships.

Education

EXPECTED GRADUATION MAY '24

Atmospheric Sciences

University of Georgia, Athens GPA 3.50

Relevant Coursework

Weather Analysis and Forecasting

Atmospheric Dynamics I and II

Satellite Meteorology

Mesoscale Meteorology

Synoptic Meteorology

Atmospheric Physics

Programming for Atmospheric Sciences

Calculus I, II, and III

Physics I and II

Relevant Experience

JUN '23 - JUL '23

Student Intern | Cherokee County Emergency Management Agency, Canton, GA

- Operated in an Emergency Operations Center during days of potential severe weather and discussed impacts with other local employees by using a multitude of weather products.
- Helped survey damage from storms which greatly impacted Cherokee County.
- Attended meetings and documented meeting content, outcomes, and action items.
- Built relationships and collaborated with local government employees by discussing potential meteorological events.
- Assisted with various projects in a research and communication capacity.
- Drafted blog posts, and other promotional materials that were sent out to citizens in Cherokee County.
- Worked with variety of personnel across many local government departments such as 911, Marshal's Office, Animal Control and Animal Shelter.

MAY '23 - MAY '23

Job Shadowing | National Weather Service Atlanta, Peachtree City, GA

- Job shadowed day-to-day operations and was shown a multitude of weather products implemented by the NWS.
- Was shown how radiosondes are set up and launched, and personally, launched a radiosonde.

Additional Experience

MAY '19 - AUG '21

Warehouse Support | KES Science and Technology, Kennesaw, GA

- Aided and facilitated the production and manufacture of air purifying units.
- Interacted with different teams in the warehouse to ensure quality of the product and timely completion of production.
- Gained experience with product specifications and packaging requirements for shipment.
- Demonstrated ability to manage multiple tasks while remaining adaptable and flexible.

JUN '19 - AUG '19

Researcher | KES Science and Technology, Kennesaw, GA

- Hired to aid the Research Department in researching potential prospects for air purifying units.
- Reviewed research briefs to initiate searches based on specific criteria for product sales.
- Collected and tracked all company information in Excel; created and updated spreadsheets and presented findings to the Head of the Department.

Skills

Data analysis

Research

Teamwork and Collaboration

Social Media

Quick Learner

Data Interpretation

Complex Problem-Solving

Creative and Resourceful

Certifications

Dual Pol Training

WSI Graphics

Volunteer Experience

Mar '16 - Mar '20

Flag Football Coach | I9 Sports, Canton, GA

- Coached and mentored flag football to children; served as an offensive specialist, calling and implementing plays.
- Established and cultivated a team culture and discipline, creating fellowship and solidarity as a team; engaged and helped each individual contribute to the team as a whole.
- Organized and implemented drills to improve player agility, speed and coordination.
- Successfully coached and managed a flag football team, emphasizing the importance of teamwork and sportsmanship.